PETER B PHOTOGRAPHY

Peter B Photography is a team of photographers whose experience allows them to anticipate things, give you the best possible advice and most importantly capture all of your stunning moments. We blend into the background for most of your day to capture it unfolding with the magic candid moments shining through.

The shots we do set up, barely feel posed and will give you the most epic, dreamy wedding photos possible. We have images that are surreal, images that capture candid laughs and tender moments, and images that are contrasty and give you a life like representation of the event. We're always open to suggestions from our clients and can mimic almost any shooting style; ultimately we're not happy if you're not happy.

WENDY ALANA PHOTOGRAPHY

My business is my joy in life. I was born to document love. I have travelled around the world photographing moments, events and weddings; some grandiose celebrity, some in a simple field. Once in a hospital when a bride's dad was dying, once at a surprise wedding when the bride herself was unaware of what was about to happen. I have laughed and cried with my couples and have perfected a well thought out, boutique and hand-crafted approach to each wedding.

I've seen it all. I've been through it all with you. When things go wrong, I have a backup to a backup plan. I am fully prepared and end up being more than your photographer. I am a time keeper, problem solver, stress reliever, parent pleaser and have been told over and over again I add a sense of calm and organization to a relatively chaotic day.

I am Wendy Alana, and I am so excited to meet you.

LOVE MADLY

Considered one of Hamilton's premiere wedding studios, Love Madly has been creating beautiful, timeless films that are filled with emotion and stunning imagery for the past 10 years. Working closely with event planners and industry professionals in Hamilton, Muskoka, Niagara, the GTA as well as Worldwide destinations, to capture incredible wedding stories that are inspired by and created for those who love madly!

We limit the number of weddings we book each year in order to really focus on each individual couple and their wedding story. Meeting for coffee or dinner and drinks is something we do with our couples a few weeks before their wedding day. We want to know how the planning process is going and what special things you have planned for your big day. We believe in the importance of the smallest details and want your film to be a beautiful memory of your wedding day that you will always treasure.

STEEL THE SKY AERIAL ARTS

Steel the Sky Aerial Arts specializes in taking diverse performance disciplines to the air. We are models, actors, dancers, musicians, vocalists and bartenders and we take these skills to a whole new level through the aerial arts. More than acrobatics and contortion, we view the aerial arts as a stage and presentation capacity for a variety of distinct skill-sets. Aerial bartenders fill guests' glasses with bubbly from above, aerial models charm the sky with ambient poses, actors tell a story through aerial choreography, aerial songstresses sing that special song dedication, our songwriters will even write an original ode for the honoured guest and a vocalist will perform your crafted tribute from the sky. We are able to perform with recorded tracks, but we highly recommend taking advantage of our amazing network of live musicians.

We work with Hamilton's finest musicians; from classical and jazz to rock and party anthems our network of musicians have a vast repertoire within their genres and are able to fulfill requests for your event. Our musicians can be booked with or without accompanying aerial performances: from a string quartet over cocktail hour to a rocking cover band playing crowd favourites to amp up the dance floor, we have you covered!

ALL LIFE'S MILESTONES

One of our team members, Rev. Ted Vance, summarized the goals of all of us at All Life's Milestones Wedding Ceremonies: "We strive to ensure that your wedding will be beautiful, low-stress, engaging and unexpectedly enjoyable for you and your guests." Our wedding officiant services include access to a large selection of wedding texts, an in-person face to face wedding ceremony planning meeting and guidance with practical and legal aspects of your ceremony.

In the over 20 years All Life's Milestones has been serving couples, some exciting changes have occurred. Tom and Beth have a team of four specialists helping them. As wedding officiants, we specialize in non-denominational, intercultural, interfaith and multilingual weddings: French, Polish, Spanish, German and a smattering of others.
